

I would like the no-call list in Wisconsin left alone. I believe it is my right to privacy. Just because all of the businesses that have relied on the act of calling anyone they can find are now hurting is no reason to call me whenever they feel like it. The reason phones were created wasn't for telemarketing.